How To Dispute Information Contained On A Louisiana State Police Criminal History Record

1 GOVERNING STATUTE

In accordance with LA Revised Statute 15:588 Right of Individual Access, disputed criminal history record information must be conducted directly with the Louisiana State Police.

LA R.S. 15:588 - The bureau shall adopt rules and regulations which provide a means for any individual, his authorized representative, or his attorney if he is physically incapable of appearing at the bureau, to view, obtain a certified copy, make notes, and administratively challenge the accuracy and contents of his personal criminal history information record and to seek corrections.

2 CONDUCT A RIGHT TO REVIEW

To begin and to expedite your dispute process, you should personally contact the Louisiana State Police. You may be required to travel to Baton Rouge to conduct the right to review in person. Call to make an appointment
